ABOUT

Carly Plotkin joined Stirling in 2016 and serves as an Advisor with the company's commercial real estate team. She has extensive knowledge in the commercial real estate industry with a primary focus on tenant and landlord representation and a strong concentration in the retail and hospitality markets. She has worked with national, regional and local clients in both marketing and leasing capacities.

Previously, Carly worked with The Howard Hughes Corporation, where she led local marketing and development efforts for the overhaul of the former Riverwalk Marketplace into the nation's first downtown outlet center, The Outlet Collection at Riverwalk in New Orleans.

Since joining Stirling, Carly has been an active member of ICSC and held a position on the Next Generation Leadership Board, in addition to serving as ICSC's NextGen State Chair for Louisiana.

Ms. Plotkin is also an active member of the New Orleans Metropolitan Association of Realtors (NOMAR) Commercial Investment Division (CID), where she served as a volunteer on the Programs Committee, and the Retail Brokers Network (RBN), where she served as RBN's NextGen Southeast Committee Chair. Carly was also the recipient of the 2017 "Rising Star Award" at the NOMAR-CID Annual Achievement Awards ceremony.

Currently, Carly is affiliated with several nonprofit and volunteer organizations, including the Anti-Defamation League, as well as proudly serves as a Board Member for the New Orleans Jewish Community Center. Ms. Plotkin is also a graduate of the New Orleans Business Alliance's inaugural Economic Development Ambassadorship Program and received her B/S in both Marketing & Communications from Tulane University's A.B. Freeman School...
