ABOUT

Chris returned home to Shreveport in 2016 after more than twenty years working in corporate real estate, corporate law and state and municipal lobbying in Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas for the outdoor advertising industry. Chris has worked exclusively as a Commercial Realtor since receiving his Louisiana Real Estate License in 2017. He has successfully represented tenants and buyers as well as property owners and investors. In 2025, Chris successfully represented the Sellers of the former Libbey Glass Plant and Dr. Reddy Pharmaceutical Plants. He is an expert in site selection successfully identifying and working to finalize the purchase of undeveloped land for medical clinics, truck stops, car washes among others. Chris is a graduate of Caddo Magnet High School, LSUS and Mississippi College School of Law. He is currently President of the NWLAR's Commercial Investment Division Board
