Rhonda Sharkawy

Senior Retail Leasing and Development Advisor

ABOUT

Rhonda Sharkawy joined the Stirling team as Development Director, where she was involved in retail ground-up developments and redevelopments. In 2002, she transitioned to the Commercial Brokerage Division as Senior Retail Leasing & Development Executive. For over twenty-five years, she has worked on new retail developments, redevelopments, leasing existing shopping centers, and handling renewal negotiations. In addition, she represents over a dozen national retailers in Louisiana and Mississippi. Rhonda is well seasoned in all aspects of commercial retail real estate.

After completing a bachelor's degree at Loyola University in New Orleans, Sharkawy earned a master's degree in Land & Real Estate Development, as well as a Master's degree in Construction Science from Texas A&M University-College Station.

When she is not working, she is busy with non-profits in the New Orleans area and loves traveling, the arts, music and activities in nature.
