ABOUT

Mathew Laborde started his commercial real estate brokerage career at the age of 19 and has consistently been among the top producing commercial real estate agents in the State of Louisiana. He is a very driven individual that is committed to maximizing the value he can provide to his clients which is the key to his success and now to Elifin Realty's success. Mathew has extensive experience in brokering office, industrial, retail, multi-family, land, medical, and investment property sale and lease transactions.
