ABOUT

Born and raised in Franklin, Louisiana, Ryan moved to Lafayette in 2017 to attend the University of Louisiana at Lafayette where he excelled and graduated in the Spring of 2021 with a Bachelor's Degree in Finance. He entered into residential real estate in 2018 before branching out into the property and casualty insurance industry, eventually returning to real estate as a commercial agent. The beginning of his career was spent under the mentorship of two high producing agents, during which he gained a specialization in industrial, office, and retail property types and a well-versed knowledge of land and income producing assets. Ryan is committed to bringing value to his clients not only through his transactional experience, but also through further education and following micro and macro-economic trends to help those clients make educated decisions for the future.
