Hank Henry

ABOUT

Hank Henry is an Associate for the Brokerage division at JRE, where he supports buyers, sellers, landlords and tenants across all commercial asset types. A Baton Rouge native, Hank brings lifelong local knowledge and a deep understanding of Louisiana's commercial real estate landscape.

He began his career as a summer intern at JRE before transitioning into a full-time role. Today, Hank leverages hands-on experience, market insight and a strong network to guide clients through every stage of the transaction. He is known for his thoughtful approach, responsiveness and commitment to long-term client success.

Hank holds a degree from Louisiana State University and remains actively involved in the Baton Rouge community. Outside the office, he enjoys LSU sports, playing golf and building relationships across the region.
