Jacob McCain

ABOUT

Jacob McCain serves as Associate Director of Acquisitions and Asset Management within JRE's Capital division. He helps lead the sourcing, underwriting and execution of new investments while overseeing the performance of assets across the portfolio. Jacob's responsibilities span the full investment lifecycle, from initial evaluation and financial modeling to leasing strategy and long-term asset management. Since joining JRE, he has helped acquire and manage over $200 million in commercial real estate assets.

A graduate of LSU's College of Engineering, Jacob previously worked in investment sales and leasing at a regional brokerage firm. He is a member of ICSC and serves on the Young Leadership Council for Baton Rouge's Growth Coalition. He currently lives in New Orleans with his wife and enjoys golf, LSU athletics and staying involved in local business and development communities.
