Hugo Murcia

ABOUT

Originally from Los Angeles California, Hugo Murcia relocated to Louisiana with his family as a teen for a change of scenery from the city life. He graduated from Louisiana State University in Shreveport, double majoring in Chemistry and Molecular and Cellular Biology while also minoring in Spanish. Upon graduating, Hugo began his career with local oil companies that manufacture finished lubricants that are sold and distributed worldwide. While there he performed as a Chemist but quickly moved on to the Sales team due to his bilingual, charismatic, and hardworking attributes.

After deciding to make the transition from the lubricants business to real estate, Hugo has since made serving the community his #1 goal in real estate. Whether it is buying or selling a residential or commercial property, Hugo goes above and beyond for all of his clients while displaying professionalism and a meticulous attention to detail that is unmatched. Using his vast knowledge of the business, Hugo always makes his client's real estate goals his primary objective while maneuvering through each transaction as if it was his very own.

Having lived over half his life in Shreveport Bossier, Hugo has now become a native to the area and it shows in his demeanor. He has developed a sense for the city's pulse so to speak that he is able to move throughout the area from every angle such as knowing the up-and-coming neighborhoods, the night scene, and the great school systems. Hugo specializes in not only closing deals, but creating lifelong relationships with his clients, which is why he has been able to gain their trust and confidence whenever they are in need of real estate advice. He prides himself in guiding clients both emotionally and logically throughout all...
