ABOUT

Bridging Hospitality & Real Estate in the Big Easy

For the past 10 years, I have been helping clients navigate the dynamic real estate landscape of the New Orleans Metro Area. From the historic streets of New Orleans to the commercial hubs of Metairie and Slidell, I bring a wealth of local market knowledge to every transaction.

My journey didn't start in real estate; it began with 15 years in the hospitality industry. This experience gave me a "service-first" mindset and a keen eye for what makes a business location truly work. Whether you are looking for income properties, warehouse space, or the perfect restaurant building, I understand the operational needs behind the brick and mortar. With over $10 million in commercial production, I am dedicated to helping you make smart, profitable real estate decisions.
