ABOUT

Andrea J Tyler was born and raised in Grants Pass, Oregon and attended University of Oregon for her undergraduate degree in Journalism. However, she switched mid course and finished her undergraduate studies at Arcadia University in Pennsylvania with a major in mathematics and minor in secondary education. She moved to New Orleans in August 2007 from Pennsylvania to teach high school mathematics.

While in New Orleans, she quickly became engrossed with New Orleans and fell in love with the architecture, culture and people. Within months, she made a commitment to take on a career in real estate. She began her career in June 2008 and in her first year in real estate, Andrea was honored with Rookie of the Year from New Orleans Metropolitan Association of Realtors. She specializes in many areas of sale which include being an Affordable Housing Specialist and enjoys working with first time home buyers, investors and homeowners needing help. As a member of the National Association of REALTORS, Louisiana REALTORS and a member of New Orleans Metropolitan Association of REALTORS, and a Board of Director for New Orleans Metropolitan Association of Realtors she is committed to service all of your residential and investment real estate needs.- She has earned many designations which include Accredited Buyer Representative, At Home With Diversity, Graduate Realtor Institute, Historic Home Specialist, Performance Management Network, Price Strategy Advisor, Real Estate Negotiation Expert, Short Sales & Foreclosure Resource, Resort and Second Home Specialist, and Seller Representative Specialist. She has also be recognized on many levels for her contributions to the industry as well as production. These acknowledgments include...
