Trenton Siskron

ABOUT

Trenton S. Siskron, a Louisiana and Texas Licensed Real Estate Agent, having worked in commercial real estate and finance since 2003. Mr. Siskron started his real estate investment sales career with Marcus & Millichap in Houston, TX, covering multi-tenant office, medical office and industrial centers in Houston, San Antonio and Austin, TX. In late 2005, his team moved to NAI Houston, where they launched the investment sales group for the company.

During Mr. Siskron's Texas commercial real estate brokerage tenure, his team compiled a six-year sales transaction resume in excess of $750 million and earned a 2008 industry designation as one of the most active investment sales groups in Houston.- Throughout their six-year partnership, the team worked with Fortune 500 companies, institutions and private clients. In addition to being an investment sales producer, Mr. Siskron was the lead Discounted Cash Flow Model underwriter for his team and in charge of training new hires to the investment sales group at NAI Houston.

In 2009, Mr. Siskron accepted a position to join a boutique, downtown Houston office for an international wirehouse and was previously Series 7, Series 31 and Series 66 licensed.- With an intense drive to understand the capital markets, he gained valuable knowledge in wealth management services, corporate client services for publicly traded companies and alternative investments. In 2011, he accepted a position to join an independent wealth management office, gaining further knowledge in the alternative investment and private equity space.
