ABOUT

Beth King specializes in the selling and leasing of commercial properties in the Shreveport-Bossier market and north Louisiana. She has been a top broker in the Shreveport Bossier market for over thirty years. Her experience and in-depth knowledge of the local commercial real estate market serve to benefit her clients, which include a wide range of national, regional and local companies. Beth's services include marketing commercial property, landlord and tenant representation as well as seller and buyer representation. She is experienced in negotiating contracts and leases and brings value to transactions. She is a member of the Northwest Louisiana Board of Realtors, the National Association of REALTORS, and in 1993 was admitted into the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors (SIOR). She has previously served on the boards of the Shreveport Downtown Development Authority, the Downtown Shreveport Development Corporation, the Commercial Investment Division of the Northwest Louisiana Board of Realtors and also the University Club. She is past president of the Shreveport-Bossier affiliate of the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation and served two terms as a board member for the Shreveport-Bossier affiliate of Komen For The Cure.
