ABOUT

Clesi Camden, a proud native of Shreveport, Louisiana, poised to make a significant impact within the industry. Her academic journey led her to Baton Rouge, where she pursued her endeavors at LSU. At LSU, Clesi pursued her passion for effective communication, earning her bachelor's degree in mass communications with a minor in Public Relations. Furthering her knowledge and skillset, she continued her educational career at LSU as a candidate of Flores MBA Program at LSU E. J. Ourso College of Business where she refined her business expertise and strategic thinking. Driven by a desire to assist others in making informed decisions, she was led to commercial real estate. She was drawn to the industry's dynamics and endless opportunities for growth. She started her career as an Intern at Lee & Associates in May 2023. With a keen interest in industrial and retail, Clesi is dedicated to leveraging her expertise to help clients navigate the complexities of commercial real estate. Clesi brings her unique blend of communication skills, professional competencies, and passion for client service to the forefront. With a commitment to excellence and a relentless drive to succeed, she will achieve exceptional results for her clients.
