Fred Credeur

REALTOR

ABOUT

Fred Credeur has a passion for teaching, helping people and of course making an impact. Fred was born and raised in Opelousas, Louisiana and now lives in Lafayette, LA. He received his degree from the University of Louisiana. He started his career as a teacher and a coach. He took a leap of faith and started his own business, Credeur Specialties, which he poured his heart into it for almost decades. In addition, Fred was the owner of some commercial property. This experience allows Fred to offer his clients the unique outlook and expertise so essential in today's ever evolving market.

Since Fred has extensive and invaluable experience in helping others in a service setting; real estate offers an extension of his desire to help friends and clients to successfully reach their property ownership dreams and goals.

Fred has been a member of the St. Landry Chamber of Commerce Board, President of the Queen of Angels Church Council, President of the Opelousas Sertoma Club, Chapter Advisor of SAE social fraternity on the UL campus, and SAE Alumni of the year twice. Fred has also served on the UL Alumni Executive Board. Additionally, he served in the Louisiana National Guard 256 th Engineers.

Fred Credeur has a desire to help people, a passion for real estate...
