Tom McGee

ABOUT

Born and raised in Monroe, Louisiana, Tom McGee relocated to Baton Rouge and embarked on a career as a Commercial Real Estate analyst and broker, collaborating with various brokerage and development firms. Prior to venturing into real estate, Tom earned a degree in accounting and internal audit from LSU. His passion for the outdoors and land ultimately steered him towards the field of real estate. Holding a license as an agent in Louisiana, Tom boasts a wealth of experience guiding clients through the entire spectrum of real estate processes, from the initial market analysis to the ultimate site selection and transaction details. Renowned for his extensive market knowledge, dynamic pricing and marketing strategies, work ethic, and unwavering commitment to helping clients achieve their objectives, Tom has consistently demonstrated his proficiency as a reliable fiduciary representative.
