ABOUT

Born and raised in southwest Louisiana, I currently reside in Moss Bluff. After fifteen years in the transportation industry, I ventured into real estate as a part time endeavor in 2004. I quickly fell in love with the real estate business and the new adventure began. A few years later, Ingle Properties was born, and with a lot of hard work from a great team of agents and loyal clients, we quickly became one of the top brokerages in the area.

In May of 2011, I made a decision to partner with Steve Floyd at Safari Realty and become Ingle Safari Realty. Ingle Safari has grown to over 90 realtors and 15 plus employees since its inception. I have been the top listing and selling agent for the Southwest Louisiana MLS board for 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017 years.

I have been honored to be voted 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017 Best Realtor in SWLA by Lagniappe Magazine Poll. I sold 63+ million production in 2017 and handled over 430 transactions. I absolutely love my job and it brings me great joy to meet and help my clients with one of the biggest purchases of their lives. I have been married to my very supportive husband, Jon Ingle for eighteen years and we have been blessed with two wonderful children, Jordan and Colton. We attend Crossroads church in Moss Bluff.

I recognize that my clients are what has driven my success to this point, and I will strive to surpass those expectations in the future. It has been my pleasure to meet and assist the people in our community with their real estate needs, and there is no other place on earth I'd rather call home.
