ABOUT

Randy Lolley is the Broker at The Lolley Group, L.L.C., holding broker licenses in both the States of Louisiana and Florida. He has 26 years of extensive experience in commercial real estate brokerage and over 40 years experience as a real estate developer. A Louisiana native, Randy is an honors graduate of LSU Law School, and formerly practiced law for 10 years with a focus on complex real estate matters. This experience gives him the ability to confidently handle larger and more challenging real estate transactions than the typical real estate agent. He also holds the SIOR designation, which is recognized and reserved for the commercial real estate industry's most highly qualified and successful practitioners.

Prior to forming The Lolley Group in 2007, Randy was the leading agent for closed sales for a large commercial real estate firm in the Tampa Bay area for 10 consecutive years. The Lolley Group maintains an office in the Tampa Bay area, as well as Acadiana. He has been one of the highest producing commercial agents in Acadiana for the past 12 years, with a specialty in industrial brokerage, development and build-to-suit construction projects.

In the development area, he has been an active partner in the development of 5 industrial parks, as well as 11 residential subdivisions in the Acadiana area.
