Hayley Richard Richard Guidry

ABOUT

Hayley Richard Guidry is a native of Lafayette, Louisiana and graduated from the University of Louisiana at Lafayette in 2011. She earned her real estate license in 2012 and went to work at Latter and Blum in New Orleans. She worked as an agent and property manager for several years until her return to the Lafayette area.

Hayley joined the family business, Champion Real Estate Services in September of 2021. Her responsibilities include the leasing of company owned assets and marketing of available retail property. She also handles the daily operations of the company as General Manager.

Hayley is excited to continue her late father and founder of Champion, Glen Richard's legacy in commercial real estate. In the words of Glen, "Everyone needs a champion their corner".
